Our Commitment to Your Privacy

Narstar LLC (“the Firm,” “we,” “us”) protects the confidential information of our clients. This notice describes what personal information we collect, how we may share it, and how we keep it safe. It is provided in accordance with Regulation S-P under federal securities law.

The Information We Collect About You

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information from you: Information you provide on applications, questionnaires, or other forms, including your name, address, assets, and income.
  - Information about your transactions: Information about your transactions with us or others, such as your account balance, investments, and account activity. This information is typically provided to us by the qualified custodian that holds your assets.

How We Handle Your Personal Information

We do not sell your personal information. We do not disclose your nonpublic personal information to third parties except as necessary to service your account or as required or permitted by law.

We may share your information with the following parties:

- Financial Service Providers: Companies that help us service your account, such as the qualified custodian that holds your assets, for purposes including trade execution and account maintenance.

- Other Professionals (with your consent): Accountants, attorneys, or other professionals, only at your specific request and with your consent.
  - As Required by Law: Regulators, law enforcement, or other parties as required by law, court order, or subpoena.

How We Protect Your Information

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use.

- Physical Safeguards: Restricted access to our office and client files.
- Electronic Safeguards: Passwords, firewalls, encryption, and other security measures on our computer systems.
- Procedural Safeguards: Access to your personal information is limited to employees and authorized service providers who need it to perform their responsibilities.

If we ever discover a data incident that could affect you, we will notify you as required by law.

Opt-Out Rights

Federal law provides you the right to limit some, but not all, of our sharing. Because we only share your information as necessary to service your account or as permitted by law, the sharing we do is legally permitted and does not trigger any opt-out rights.
